Auswide Bank to sponsor inaugural event to celebrate young achievers.

- Nominations now open for the QLD Young Achievers Awards
- Auswide Bank announced as Prize sponsors for the 2016 awards
- Category winners to receive a $2000 Auswide Bank Account

Auswide Bank announced today that it will be partnering as the prize sponsor of the inaugural QLD Young Achievers Awards.

The Awards for under 29 year olds recognise and honour Queensland's outstanding young achievers and community contributors.

"It would be fantastic to see young people from our Queensland regions nominated for these prestigious awards and I'll be encouraging those involved in their local communities, who are making a valuable contribution to apply" said Auswide Bank's Community Relations Specialist Carly Ryder

This is your chance to show your appreciation and give a "pat on the back" to a well deserving young person. Nominations will be sought throughout Queensland in the following categories:

- The Coffee Club Arts and Fashion Award
- AustralianSuper Career Kick Start Award
- IFly Online Achievement Award
- Wade Sawmill Environment and Sustainability Award
- Access Community Services-Multicultural Youth Queensland (MyQ) Cultural Diversity Award
- The University of Queensland Create Change Award
- BB Print Leadership Award
- Kennelly Construction Aboriginal Achievement Award

Nominations close on Friday 29th January 2016.

Small things. Big difference.
