2. Target Market

Target Market:

Class of consumers that comprise the target market for the product

Consumer Description:

This describes consumers in the target market

Objectives & Needs

A person that may seek an account for depositing funds for personal purposes and to earn interest on those funds and who may require limited access to those funds.

Financial Situation

A person that may have financial capacity to deposit funds into the account and pay a dishonour fee (as set out in the terms and conditions) as and when that amount become payable and due.

Product Description:

This describes the product

A savings account, access to which is principally limited to online banking, with the following key attributes:

- the ability to deposit funds and to earn interest on those funds;
- the ability to make transactions via eligible access methods; and
- the requirement to deposit funds (to earn interest) and to pay dishonour fees.

In general, it is only available to consumers that meet standard eligibility criteria.

2. Target Market continued

Appropriateness Statement:

This explains why the product is consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of the target market

The product is appropriate for the target market on the basis that the key attributes of the product listed in this determination directly address the objectives, financial situation and needs of consumers in the target market as described in this determination.

3. Distribution

Distribution Conditions:

The conditions and restrictions on the distribution of the product

Marketing and Promotions

This condition applies to marketing and promotional materials that describe the product

Condition 1

A distributor must only market and promote the product through:

- advertising on television, radio, the internet (including social media), billboards and physical banners, brochures and other marketing material available to the general public;
- in person recommendations to access marketing material (including in branch communications and the Elders branded referrer network); and
- any other issuer approved direct communication channels (including telephone, email and social media).

This condition is appropriate as the target market is wide.

Retail Product Distribution Conduct (other than Marketing and Promotions)

This condition applies to all conduct (other than marketing and promotions) such as issuing, arranging and providing disclosure material

Condition 2

A distributor must only engage in retail product distribution conduct (other than marketing and promotions) through:

- in person communications (including in branch and through the Elders branded referrer network);
- through the issuer's and other approved third party digital platforms; and
- any other issuer approved communication channels (including telephone, email and social media).

This condition is appropriate as the target market is wide. It is also appropriate as the issuer has distributed this product using these methods, with limited risk to consumers.

Condition 3

A distributor must only engage in retail product distribution conduct (other than marketing and promotions) if it has identified the key difference between:

- the product; and
- other deposit products issued by the issuer.

This condition is appropriate as it requires a distributor to confirm that the consumer is in the target market.

4. Review

Review Date:

The first review, and each ongoing review, must be completed within each consecutive 12 month period from the Start Date.

Review Triggers:

The events and circumstances that would reasonably suggest the determination is no longer appropriate

The issuer, and any distributor of this product, must cease retail product distribution conduct in respect of this product when the issuer determines a material event or circumstance has occurred in relation to:
