Personal Bank Accounts

Terms and Conditions

Our Terms and Conditions for Personal Bank Accounts contain important information about Auswide Bank's accounts and banking services for customers choosing personal bank accounts.

Our Terms and Conditions for Personal Bank Accounts ('Terms and Conditions') consist of:

- Guide to Personal Bank Accounts (this document)
- + Guide to Banking Services

You should read these documents before making a decision to open an account with us, acquire any banking services, or make any transactions. You should retain these documents in case you need to refer to them at a later date.

Our Terms and Conditions have been designed to help you:

- decide if our accounts and banking services meet your needs; and
- compare all the features, terms, conditions, fees and charges of our accounts and banking services with those of others.

Please note that our Terms and Conditions do not take into account your particular personal objectives, financial situation or needs.

You should also read our Privacy Policy, which is available on our website.

Updating our Terms and Conditions

Where required by law, or where we subscribe to a particular code, we will notify you in advance of any changes to our Terms and Conditions in accordance with the requirements of that law or code.

You can also find out more about our current Terms and Conditions by:

- talking to one of our consultants at any branch or by phone on 1300 138 831; or
- visiting our website at www.auswidebank.com.au

Dishonour Fees X

Direct Debit and External Payment Dishonour Fee ◇ payable when you've arranged a direct debit payment or an external payment to an account at another financial institution but there are insufficient clear funds in your account (including payments you initiate electronically)	$15 per dishonour
---	--------------------

® BPAY™ registered to BPAY Pty Ltd ABN 69 079 137 518.

∞ a dishonour fee applies when there are insufficient clear funds in the account to be debited - see 'Dishonour Fees'

■ many overseas banks will levy other processing charges that may vary between banks and countries, which will result in the beneficiary receiving a lesser amount than transmitted.

X to help avoid dishonour fees for payments, we recommend you have sufficient clear funds in your account prior to writing a cheque. To help avoid reject fees for pre-arranged date sensitive electronic payments (eg; direct debits), you should ensure you have sufficient clear funds in your account at least 2 business days before the expected debit date. To also avoid some of these fees, arrange for an automatic sweep from another Auswide Bank account to the account that is to be debited with your cheque, direct debit or external electronic payment.

∅ where charged on specific account types, a separate fee applies to the primary and each sub-account.

† From 1/1/ 2025, we no longer issue cheque books or bank cheques. From 26/5/2025 we will no longer honour Auswide Bank personal cheques and bank cheques.

Fee Waivers
