3 | Distribution

Distribution Conditions:

The conditions and restrictions on the distribution of the product

Marketing and Promotions

This condition applies to marketing and promotional materials that describe the product

Retail Product Distribution Conduct (other than Marketing and Promotions)

This condition applies to all conduct (other than marketing and promotions) such as issuing, arranging and providing disclosure material

Condition 1

A distributor must only market and promote the product through:

- approved business advertising;
- in person recommendations to access marketing material (including in branch communications and through referrer networks); and
- any other issuer approved communication channels (including telephone, email and social media).

This condition is appropriate as the target market is limited to businesses, which may include body corporates and sole traders.

Condition 2

A distributor must only engage in retail product distribution conduct (other than marketing and promotions) through:

- in person communications (including in branch and through referrer networks);
- the issuer's and other approved third party digital platforms; and
- any other issuer approved communication channels (including telephone, email and social media).

This condition is appropriate as the issuer has distributed this product using these methods, with limited risk to the consumers.

Condition 3

A distributor must only engage in retail product distribution conduct (other than marketing and promotions) if it has identified the key difference between:

- the product; and
- other deposit products issued by the issuer.

This condition is appropriate as it requires a distributor to confirm that the consumer is in the target market.

Condition 4

A distributor must only engage in retail product distribution conduct (other than marketing and promotions) if the consumer is a business.

This condition is appropriate as it requires a distributor to confirm that the consumer is in the target market.
